

OUR MISSION

My Daddy Taught Me Better's mission is to change the trajectory of the lives of under-served young people in the metropolitan Atlanta area and beyond. Our organization's name is an indication of our Promise, which is to show youth and young adults the breadth of possibilities that exist for them to pursue. We intend to disrupt and correct the social conditioning that is happening amongst some in this population.

CONTACT US

P.O Box 2077, Douglasville, GA 30133
1-678-506-5053
info@mydaddytaughtmebetter.org
www.mydaddytaughtmebetter.org

YOUTH DEVELOPMENT AND COACHING

Engage youth before their families are at the point of crisis to address needs via programs that address pressing concerns of youth of today. We will be a resource for guidance and compassion.

SUPPLEMENTAL EDUCATIONAL SUPPORT

Provide regular, ongoing school supply, food, clothing, and hygiene item donations.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Provide program sessions that improve the quality of life for all community members, including but not limited to police engagement, teen pregnancy, and social etiquette.

MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES AND REFERRALS

Providing referrals to professional counseling services and programs that address various mental health needs pertinent to youth.

WHAT WE DO

MDTMB is dedicated to offering holistic social services to include, but is not limited to, Youth Development and Coaching through mentoring and life skills development, Supplemental Educational Support through providing donations, Community Engagement through notable guest speakers and community stakeholders, and Mental Health Services and Referrals through providing counseling, food and clothing assistance, housing assistance.

“Changing the Trajectory...”