

WHO WE ARE

We are a new non-profit organization that aims to engage youth before their families are at the point of crisis to address needs via programs that address pressing concerns of youth of today. We will be a resource for guidance and compassion.

OUR MISSION

My Daddy Taught Me Better's mission is to change the trajectory of the lives of under-served young people in the metropolitan Atlanta area and beyond. Our organization's name is an indication of our Promise, which is to show youth and young adults the breadth of possibilities that exist for them to pursue. We intend to disrupt and correct the social conditioning that is happening amongst some in this population.

WHY SUPPORT US?

- MDTMB is dedicated to offering holistic social services to include, but are not limited to, Youth Development and Coaching, Supplemental Educational Support, Community Engagement, and Mental Health Services and Referrals.
- We have started building a track record of providing critical services to youth and their families with our Board, partners, and volunteers who make this possible.
- The operational budget is $50,000 for this year, allowing us to serve 150 community members.
